

Rwanda's Presidential Advisory Council (PAC) is committed to achieving the goals of Vision 2020

The Presidential Advisory Council (PAC) is a diverse group of individuals from several countries, possessing a broad spectrum of professional backgrounds. They are united in their commitment to love and serve the people of Rwanda.

His Excellency President Paul Kagame (Rwanda) – Chairman
Joe Ritchie (USA) – Co-chairman, CEO of Rwanda Development Board

Rosemary Museminali (Rwanda) – Minister of Foreign Affairs
James Musoni (Rwanda) – Minister of Finance
Francois Kanimba (Rwanda) – Governor of National Bank of Rwanda
James Kimonyo (Rwanda) – Ambassador to the United States
David Himbara (Rwanda) – Planning and Strategy, Office of the President
Francis Gatare (Rwanda) – Deputy CEO of Rwanda Development Bank

Christian Angermayer (Germany) – Private equity investor
Dale Dawson (USA) – Founder & CEO of Bridge2Rwanda
Michael Fairbanks (USA) – Founder of OTF Group and SEVEN Foundation
Scott Ford (USA) – CEO of Alltel Corporation
Tom Hunter (UK) – Scottish businessman and philanthropist
Donald Kaberuka (Rwanda) – President of African Development Bank
Kaia Miller (USA) – Founder of Aslan Global
Clet Niyikiza (USA/Rwanda) – Vice President of Worldwide R&D at GlaxoSmithKline
Michael Porter (USA) – Professor at Harvard Business School, author on competitive strategy
Michael Roux (Australia) – Chair of Roux International, former Vice-Chairman of Citigroup
John Rucyahana (Rwanda) – Bishop of Shyira Diocese, Anglican Church of Rwanda
Tribert Rujugiro (Rwanda) – Businessman and Chair of Rwanda Investment Group
Rick Warren (USA) – Pastor at Saddleback Church/PEACE Plan, author of Purpose Driven Life
Eliane Ubalijoro (Canada/Rwanda) – Professor at McGill University, Developing area studies